

Summer Field Day at Graywolf Vineyard
Tour & Tasting at Port of Leonardtown Winery
Saturday, June 18, 2011

AGENDA

- 9:00 – 9:15    Registration. Coffee, juice, and doughnuts provided.
- 9:15 – 9:30    Welcome and Introductions – Overview of Graywolf Vineyard. The Graywolf Vineyard is approximately 4 acres in size with vines ranging in age from newly planted Barbera to 4-year old Vidal vines. Owned by Paul & Sarah Cornett who are members of the Southern Maryland Wine Growers Cooperative.
- 9:30 – 10:30    Your soil: What you should know before your vineyard- Andrew G. Ristvey, Ph.D. University of Maryland Extension. This session will review the physical and chemical characteristics of Soil, how to interpret a soil test and what you should look for as a grape grower, and can you improve and amend your soils for growing grapes?
- 10:30 – 12:30    Vineyard IPM - Dr. Joe Fiola, Ph.D. This session will begin with an overview of vineyard disease identification using MGGA's web-based GrapeCast disease risk information followed by an "in-the-vineyard" session. Participants will scout the current vineyard conditions, assess canopy management and disease control recommendations as well as integrated pest management techniques.
- 12:30 - 1:30    LUNCH - Bring your own lunch, favorite beverage, and your own lawn chair for seating.
- 1:30 – 2:15    Black Marmorated Stink Bugs - Dr. Joe Fiola, Viticulture Specialist, University of Maryland Extension. This session will provide an update on the latest control mechanisms for BMSB.
- 2:15 - 3:00    Starting a Co-Operative Winery – the Experience of the Southern Maryland Growers Cooperative. Caroline Baldwin, President.
- 3:00 – 3:15    Question & Answer Period – Open forum to ask any questions you may have.
- 3:15            Port of Leonardtown Winery - Participants will proceed to the Port of Leonardtown Winery for a tour and tasting session. In addition, Dr. Joe Fiola will be presenting a tasting of UME research wines.
